Case Study #2
Sam

Sam is a student with dyslexia. He is included in his eighth grade classroom but receives thirty minutes of pull-out reading services per day. He is a bright student but becomes easily frustrated because of his reading difficulties. Sam’s class is starting a unit of Greek Mythology and his teacher believes that Sam can succeed at grade level expectations, so long as his dyslexia is considered.

Eighth Grade Reading Standard:

The student will understand the meaning of texts using a variety of strategies and will demonstrate literal, interpretive, inferential and evaluative comprehension.

Activities:
1. Summarize and paraphrase main idea and supporting details.
2. Recall and use prior learning and preview text to prepare for reading.
3. Comprehend, interpret and evaluate information in a variety of texts using a combination of strategies before, during and after reading.
